

DOMINIC McKENZIE ARCHITECTS

STOKE NEWINGTON

Dominic McKenzie Architects was awarded planning permission for this new-build house in Stoke Newington.

The new house is located on the site of what is currently a walled garden containing a small freestanding studio building. The walled garden and adjacent Victorian terraced house are owned by DMA's client who approached DMA to see if an extension to the existing house may be possible.

